

Airedale Beekeepers Association

BEEKEEPING FOR BEGINNERS

Join us for our next course, commencing 13 March 2016

A course of six, two-hour lessons to provide you with the information and basic skills you need to take up beekeeping. It will cover:

- An introduction to honey bee biology
- Equipment and getting started
- Hive management, handling and swarm control
- Bee health and diseases
- Honey – how to harvest and process

The course includes at least three additional ‘hands-on’ sessions at one of our local ABKA apiaries – plus the ongoing support of our Association.

Course cost: £90 to include £30 ABKA membership for one year.

The course will run on six Sunday mornings starting in March, from 10am at the classroom of the National Trust at East Riddlesden Hall.
